Continuing Education Credit: These classes are worth three hours of CE. Full attendance is required if you would like to receive CE credit. No partial credit will be given. You must be on time and present for the entire seminar. To receive CE credit, you must not repeat the same course within the compliance period.

Confirmation: You will receive confirmation via e-mail upon registering for a class. Therefore, it is very important that we have your correct e-mail address. Please verify the course date and location.

Cancellation Policies: Registrations canceled more than seven calendar days prior to the class are fully refundable. No refunds for no-shows. You may not cancel the day of the class.

Transfer Policies: Registration payments are able to be transferred to another class up to two times if a schedule conflict occurs. You must notify PIA of Indiana at least seven days prior to the class that you will be applying your payment credit to another class. Payments need to be used within six months from when they are received by PIA of Indiana.

ADA: In accordance with Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, we invite registrations with a disability to advise us and request accommodation. Please submit requests as far in advance of the program you wish to attend as possible.
